er given to us to resist evil, injustice, and oppression in what-

Welcome! We are so glad you are here today. Whether you are a long time member or a first time visitor, we hope you will find answers to any questions you may have about Redmond UMC.

How We Address God

In our prayers and hymns, references to God may sometimes use gender-specific language. We invite you to adapt the language to reflect your understanding of God's all-encompassing Spirit. You are also welcome to sing hymns and speak parts of the service, such as the Lord's Prayer, in your native tongue.

Care and Prayer

Please fill out the Prayer Request form online at redmodumc.org/prayer and our prayer team will follow up with you. You will have the option for your request to be kept confidential or, if you prefer, for it to be shared with the prayer team.

Our hymnals:

- UMH – United Methodist Hymnal (Blue)
- TFWS – The Faith We Sing (Black)
- W&S – Worship & Song (Green)

All the words to the hymns will be on the screen. If you would like a physical hymnal, they are on a bookshelf in the Narthex. Please see an Usher if you have any questions.

The appearance of + indicates that you are invited to rise, as you are able.

Children and Families on Sundays

Nursery Care is available for children 0 to 5 years old.

For children older than 5, there are Children's Worship Bags available in the Narthex. Please place the empty worship bags in the container under the table after worship.

Staying Safe at RUMC

Redmond UMC takes the safety of the children and vulnerable populations very seriously. We follow Safe Sanctuaries practices, which is our commitment to the physical safety and spiritual growth of all of our children, youth, and adults.

We are on Native Land

We acknowledge that the land on which we live, work, and worship is the traditional land of the Duwamish, Stillaguamish, and Coast Salish people, who were forcibly displaced from this area. We honor their ongoing connection to this land and accept our responsibility to engage in a more truthful retelling of history that moves us toward justice and thriving for all.

Faithful Resistance- September Worship Series

As we begin a new ministry year at RUMC, we enter into a season of faithful resistance – a time of deep discernment and courageous discipleship. Today, being a Christian is not difficult because of threats to our safety, but because of the profound challenge of living faithfully in a world that often contradicts the values of the Gospel. What does it mean to follow Jesus Christ? What does it mean to trust in God? How do we know what God is calling us to do?

Rooted in the prophet voice of Jeremiah, who speaks to a people in crisis and calls them back to covenant, and grounded in the wisdom of the Psalms, which offer a vision of lives deeply rooted in God's word, we are invited to wrestle with the tensions of our time.

In this season, we are invited to resist the forces that seek to divide and distort and to live boldly into the liberating call of the Gospel.

Copies of the book are available to borrow from the church library in the Education Building. We encourage you to begin reading now - there's plenty of time to engage with the book before our special gathering on October 16th.
