BENEDICTION

We are so glad you are here today

Whether you are a long-time member or a first-time visitor, we hope you will find answers to questions you may have about Redmond UMC.

How We Address God

In our prayers and hymns, references to God may sometimes use gender-specific language. We invite you to adapt the language to reflect your understanding of God's all-encompassing Spirit.

Care & Prayer

Please fill out the Prayer Request form and our prayer team will follow up with you. Your prayer request will be kept confidential unless shared with the prayer team at your request.

Join us for Coffee Hour

We hope you will join us in the Lobby following today's service for Coffee Hour and Fellowship. If you would like to donate cookies (either home-made or from a bakery), please sign-up on the refreshment table.

Children & Families

Children under 5 are invited to the Nursery in the Education Building, starting at 9:45am. Children 5 years old and older are invited to join us for the start of worship and then are welcome to attend Sunday School.

Staying Safe at RUMC

Redmond UMC takes the safety of the children and vulnerable populations very seriously. We follow Safe Sanctuaries practices, which is our commitment to the physical safety and spiritual growth of all our children, youth, and adults.

Current Worship Series - Holy Interruption

The resurrection was not a gentle spiritual idea - it was a disruptive, holy interruption. Locked doors flew open. Doubters touched wounds. Strangers gathered around the table. Communities reoriented their lives. The early disciples were interrupted so deeply by the risen Christ that they could not return to the lives they had beforehand.

In this Easter season, we will ask: if resurrection is true, what in our lives cannot possibly stay the same?

From fear to courage, from isolation to community, from certainty to courageous witness - Christ's resurrection still interrupts us.
